Buy It Right The First Time!

DESIGN RETAINER

- Retainers are not required to provide preliminary budget estimates.
- Retainers are required when a client wishes to proceed with floor plans and elevations.
- Retainers will be applied to the purchase price of the cabinetry when a contract is signed. If you choose to use another cabinet supplier, retainers will not be refunded (floor plans and elevations will become property of the client).

You can be confident in Cabinets & Designs ability to transform your vision into a reality. We believe strong communication is the key to incorporating your wants and needs into the room of your dreams.

Our reputation for quality products, exceptional service, attention to details, and satisfied clients is our greatest asset.
